Item As soon as my son Daniel has arrived at the age of twenty years I direct my executors to pay to him the sum of three hundred dollars and when my son Lemon has arrived at the age of twenty years I order my executors to pay to him the like sum of three hundred dollars for the purpose of buying buggies or its equivalent and neither amount shall be charged against either of them.

Item After all special bequests are paid and the Executors secured for the payment of those special bequests not then payable I direct that within two years from the time of my death the balance remaining in the hands of my executors shall be divided into six equal like shares and one share or sixth part thereof I give and bequeath to my son Henry and one share or sixth part thereof I give and bequeath to my son Franklin and one share or sixth part thereof I give and bequeath to my daughter Liggie and one share or sixth part thereof I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary and one share or sixth part thereof I give and bequeath to my son Daniel and one share or sixth part thereof I give and bequeath to my son Lemon or to either of their heirs or legal representatives.

Item Five years after the first distribution has been made I direct my executors to make another distribution dividing such unbequeathed or unexpended amount in their hands, into six equal shares paying the same in like manner to my six children as before mentioned.